

Sub-program	1. Realization of Sustainable Economic Growth and a Stable Society
Component (Development Issues)	1-1-1. Legal and Judicial Development
Target Organization	Ministry of Justice (including respective courts) / Council for Legal and Judicial Reform / Certified lawyers who are registered with the Bar Association of the Kingdom of Cambodia / Royal school for Judges and prosecutors / Lecturer of Royal University of Law and Economy Lecturer who can submit public servant ID or equivalent documents only
Background	The Rectangular Strategy maintains that good governance is the most important pre-condition to achieve sustainable economic development with equity and social justice. Furthermore, Achieving good governance will require the active participation and commitment of all segments of the society, enhanced information sharing, accountability, transparency, equality, inclusiveness, and the rule of law. Specifically, it entails eliminating government corruption, promoting judicial reform, reforming government officials, decentralization, and implementing a Governance Action Plan focused on military reforms including demobilization. Poverty reduction by developing the private sector and social development including public financial reforms within this strategy and economic growth based on good governance are important. Thus, it is recognized that not only capacity building in public sector but also non-governmental sector which has a function of monitoring for the realization of good governance is also important.
Component	Objective/Research area	Outline of university program
1-1-1. Legal and Judicial Development	[Objective] Human Resources Involved in “Legal and Judicial Development” improve knowledge on policy making and institution-building in the judicial reform promotion of the government of Cambodia. [Research Area] In a manner to complement JICA’s legal and Judicial System Development Program that assists to draft and operate civil-code / civil procedure code and relevant bills and foster human resources in legal profession, human resources such as policy makers and strategists will be fostered who back up a judicial reform of Cambodian government aims at a resolution of corruption in the Bar, ineffectiveness of court decisions, limited access to the courts for ordinary citizens, flaw in the law system and lack of human resources.	While providing foreign students with basic courses in English on areas in relation to nation-building and systematic reforms of developing countries and countries which shifted their system, such as constitutional law, administrative law, commercial law, international law, comparative political science, etc., our graduate school has research and education programs which make it possible to deepen comparison of the legal and political system of Japan and their own system by having them report their own system and discuss each other.