

Scholarship to Japan

JDS Program in Lao P.D.R. (Sub-Program 1-1-1)

What is JDS?

The Japanese Grant Aid for Human Resource Development Scholarship (JDS) was established by the Government of Lao P.D.R. with the assistance of the Government of Japan for FY2000-2001. The objective of JDS is to support human resources development of Lao P.D.R., targeting young government officials, who are expected to be leaders of the country, and to engage in formulating and implementing social and economic development policies after returned. Participants of the JDS Program shall contribute to an expanded and enhanced foundation for bilateral relations with Japan as persons having well-rounded knowledge of Japan.

Field of Study

The framework of JDS program consists of “Sub-Program” and “Component”, which correspond to and deal with the selected target priority area and development issues of Lao P.D.R.. The participants of the program are selected from the “Target Organizations” whose mission is closely related to “sub-program” and “component”. Accepting Japanese university offers educational programs corresponded to the needs. The degree to be obtained is master’s degree (2 to 2.5 years course). The Medium of Instruction is English.

Sub-Program (Target Priority Area):
	Improving Administrative Ability and Institution Building
Component (Development Issues):
	Capacity Development in Administrative and Financial Institutions (Capacity Development in Management of Public Finance)
Target Organizations:
	Ministry of Finance (Managing Organization) Ministry of Planning and Investment, National Academy of Politics and Public Administration, Bank of Lao P.D.R.
Accepting University (Number of Scholars) & Degree to be Obtained:
	International University of Japan (5) -Graduate School of International Relations (International Development Program) -Master of Arts in Economics, or Master of Arts in International Development
Background:
	Under the public finance management system in Laos, public expenditure for development plans is managed by Ministry of Planning and Investment (MPI) and current expenditure is managed by Ministry of Finance. MPI is implementing and supervising the public investment program (PIP) and has authority and responsibility for drafting the project’s account budget (development budget). However, they do not have sufficient planning abilities, or assessing/monitoring system for appropriate implementation of PIP. On the other hand, Ministry of Finance has embarked on Public Expenditure Management Strengthening Program (PEMSP) funded mainly by the World Bank, and has begun improving for this program. Although a new budget law was enacted and a new accounting system was introduced, they regard capacity building for staffs as an important issue. JDS Fellows are expected to acquire the knowledge useful for policymaking and institution building in relation to administrative and financial management, particularly with regard to the management of public spending and current expenditures for development plan.
